

Heart Disease Kills Suddenly.

but never without fair warning. By an occasional fluttering, a perceptible palpitation, shortness of breath, etc., in many ways is the victim fully notified. But his friends are ignorant, and the warning is disregarded, until loving associates are shocked and amazed by another sudden death.

"My wife suffered years with heart trouble which the doctors called incurable valvular contraction of the heart. She took 3 bottles of Dr. Miles' Heart Cure six months ago, and has not suffered since. She sleeps well, and is like a new person altogether, and says Dr. Miles' Remedies are gold to her."—F. B. JACKSON, 701 S. 27th St., Omaha, Neb. For sale by druggists on guarantee that first bottle will benefit, or money refunded.

BUYING BALL PLAYERS.

The Business Is Aptly Compared to the Shell Game.

"Dickers in baseball players are about as much of a gamble as playing the horses, and sometimes there is a sort of shell game mixed up in these dickers," says a baseball magnate. "The shells are spied on you when you buy a dead one or a has been. In 1890 I received a letter from an ambitious young short stop in the Western association who wanted me to give him a chance to play in Washington. He was willing to work for $75 a month. I never sign a ball player unless I have seen him work, and I couldn't break my rule by signing this ambitious young applicant, whose name is Dahlen, and who is now playing the short field for Uncle Anson.

"Another player wanted an opening on my team in 1890. He fixed his salary at $80 per month. He had recommendations to show that he was a promising young player, worthy of a trial in fast company. But I couldn't sign him on the endorsement of those I did not know. I wish I had, for he came east and is now one of the cracks of Ed Hanlon's championship Orioles, and his name is Joe Kelley. Still, I have heard it said that luck doesn't cut any figure in baseball, and those who affect to believe that it doesn't are the managers who have enjoyed a large share of luck.

"The purchase of a young ball player is as big a risk as buying an untried 2-year-old race horse. And players, like race horses, have their good and bad years."—Philadelphia Press.

TIMELY TURF TIPS.

Jeff Davis, 2:17 1/4, by Atlantic, is again in training.

Fellfare paced the fastest mile ever made in Montana, 2:11 1/2.

Baron Wilkes gets a new performer in the black mare Bowery Belle.

It is said that there is not a regulation mile track in the state of Vermont.

Bessie Wilton, 2:09 1/4, is the fourth 4-year-old trotter to beat 2:10 in a race.

Rancho del Paso bred horses have won $1,000,000 on the American turf.

Mascot, 2:04, is yet under the veterinary's care, not having recovered from his spring lameness.

Jo Jo, by Galopin, a son of Hamlin's Almont, Jr., was second in 2:20 1/4 at the recent Goshen meeting.

Murat, by Director, in 641 Curry's hands, is said to be about ready to go to the races and is reported to be very fast.

Trainer D. B. Herrington is shaping up his horses at Poughkeepsie, N. Y., and recently stepped the stallion Attractive a mile in 2:13 1/2.

The Belle Mead stock farm, Belle Mead, N. J., has won with its horses five out of six stakes in which they have competed and got fourth money in the sixth.

Probably the fastest mile ever driven by a woman was that at Glens Falls, N. Y., recently, when Mrs. F. H. Winch, of Middlebury, Vt., drove Major Wonder a mile in 2:12 1/4.

Think's Stanbury Will Win.

In speaking of the forthcoming rowing contest between Stanbury and Gaudaur, the Philadelphia Ledger says: "In all likelihood Stanbury will start favorite in the betting. Although the date of the race is a considerable way off, yet it may be safe to say that the Australian will win it. The course is greatly in his favor, as it is a straightaway course. Stanbury at the Texas regatta showed that he is not at home in a race with a turn. Not only Gaudaur, but a rower like Peterson, defeated him. That is proof that Stanbury's abilities cannot be estimated by his regatta work in this country. He is a powerful rower and can stay the distance. His performance against Harding not long ago showed him to be as good as he ever was. Some people consider him as good as Searle was, and if he is that he will defeat Gaudaur just as sure as they meet. But he does not need to be as good as Searle to defeat the Canadian. In my humble opinion, he is not as good a sculler as the late world's champion, but he is good enough to defeat Gaudaur. The latter before sailing for England stated that he never felt better in his life. This is a very satisfactory piece of news, as it means there will be no excuse for defeat if defeat is to be the portion of Gaudaur."

Heggerty May Fight Dixon.

A piece of news of interest to boxers and their friends is the fact that in a few weeks Charlie White of New York will send the necessary funds to Tim Heggerty, the featherweight champion of Australia, with which he can journey to this country from Melbourne, where he is now located. If the negotiations are carried out successfully, Heggerty, on his arrival here, will at once challenge George Dixon for the featherweight championship of the world and a stake and purse. A club near New York will make a bid for the bout, and on paper it looks so interesting that the clubs will undoubtedly compete at a lively rate for the purpose of having such an attractive card. It behooves Dixon to take good care of himself, for more than one manager is casting about in the attempt to find a man who can win the much coveted featherweight championship.—New York Sun.

Conneff and Bacon.

In an interview with a representative of the London Sporting Life, Tommy Conneff says: "I see that Bacon is matched with H. Ansted for a four mile race on Sept. 19, but I sincerely hope that Mr. Nathan Mather, who, I believe, is Bacon's backer, will come forward at once to make a match for me later than September, as I am anxious to return to the States in October to resume my study of medicine at the Holy Cross Jesuits' college, at Worcester, Mass., which college I represented on the path last season."
